

Notice of Privacy Practices for Castle Rock Family Physicians

(Referred to in this document as “the provider”)

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice of Privacy Practices is being provided to you as a requirement of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA). This Notice describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information to carry out treatment, payment, or health care operations and for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. It also describes your rights to access and control your protected health information in some cases. Your “protected health information” includes any of your written and oral health information, including demographic data that can be used to identify you. This is health information that is created or received by your health care provider, and that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition.

I. Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information

The provider may use your protected health information for purposes of providing treatment, obtaining payment for treatment, and conducting health care operations. Your protected health information may be used or disclosed only for these purposes unless the Provider has obtained your authorization or the use or disclosure is otherwise permitted by the HIPAA Privacy Regulations or State law. Disclosures of your protected health information for the purposes described in this Notice may be made in writing, orally, or by facsimile.

- A. Treatment. We will use and disclose your protected health information to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party for treatment purposes. For example, we may disclose your protected health information to a pharmacy to fill a prescription, to a laboratory to order a blood test, or to a home health agency that is providing care in your home. We may also disclose protected health information to other physicians who may be treating you or consulting with your provider with respect to your care. In some cases, we may also disclose your protected health information to an outside treatment provider for purposes of the treatment activities of the other provider.
- B. Payment. Your protected health information will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for the services that we provide. This may include certain communications to your health insurer to get approval for the treatment that we recommend. For example, if a hospital admission is recommended, we may need to disclose information to your health insurer to get prior approval for the hospitalization. We may also disclose protected health information to your insurance company to determine whether you are eligible for benefits or whether a particular service is covered under your health plan. In order to get payment for your services, we may also need to disclose your protected health information to your insurance company to demonstrate the medical necessity of the services or, as required by your insurance company, for utilization review. We may also disclose patient information to another provider involved in your care for the other provider’s payment activities.
- C. Operations. We may use or disclose your protected health information, as necessary, for our own health care operations in order to facilitate the function of the provider and to provide quality care to all patients. Health care operations include such activities as:
 - Quality assessment and improvement activities
 - Employee review activities
 - Training programs including those in which students, trainees, or practitioners in health care learn under supervision
 - Accreditation, certification, licensing, or credentialing activities

- Review and auditing, including compliance review, medical review, legal services, and maintaining compliance programs.
- Business management and general administrative activities

In certain situations, we may also disclose patient information to another provider or health plan for their health care operations.

- D. Other Uses and Disclosures. As part of treatment, payment and healthcare operations, we may also use or disclose your protected health information for the following purposes:
- To remind you of appointments
 - To inform you of potential treatment alternatives or options
 - To inform you of health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you
 - To contact you to raise funds for the provider or an institutional foundation related to the provider. If you do not wish to be contacted about fundraising, please contact our Privacy Officer.

II. Uses and Disclosures Beyond Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations Permitted Without Authorization or Opportunity to Object

Federal privacy rules allow us to use or disclose your protected health information without your permission or authorization for a number of reasons, including those stated below.

- A. When Legally Required. We will disclose your protected health information when we are required to do so by any Federal, State, or Local law.
- B. When There Are Risks to Public Health. We may disclose your protected health information for the following public health activities and purposes:
- To prevent, control, or report disease, injury or disability as permitted or required by law.
 - To report vital events such as birth or death as permitted or required by law.
 - To conduct public health surveillance, investigations, and interventions as permitted or required by law.
 - To collect or report adverse events and product defects; track FDA regulated products; enable product recalls, repairs or replacements to the FDA; and to conduct post marketing surveillance.
 - To notify a person who has been exposed to a communicable disease or who may be at risk of contracting or spreading a disease as authorized by law.
 - To report to an employer information about an individual who is a member of the workforce as legally permitted or required.
- C. To Report Abuse, Neglect, or Domestic Violence. We may notify government authorities if we believe that a patient is the victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence. We will make this disclosure only when specifically required or authorized by law or when the patient agrees to disclosure.
- D. To Conduct Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose your protected health information to a health oversight agency for activities including audits; civil, administrative, or criminal investigations, proceedings or actions; inspections; licensure or disciplinary actions; or other activities necessary for appropriate oversight as authorized by law. We will not disclose your health information if you are the subject of an investigation and your health information is not directly related to your receipt of health care or public benefits.
- E. In Connection with Judicial and Administrative Proceedings. We may disclose your protected health information in the course of any judicial or administrative proceeding in response to an order of a court or administrative tribunal as expressly authorized by such order or in response to a subpoena in some circumstances.

- F. For Law Enforcement Purposes. We may disclose your protected health information to a law enforcement official for law enforcement purposes as follows:
- As required by law for reporting certain types of wounds or other physical injuries
 - Pursuant to court order, court-ordered warrant, subpoena, summons or similar process
 - For the purpose of identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person.
 - Under certain limited circumstances, when you are the victim of a crime.
 - To a law enforcement official if the provider has a suspicion that your death was the result of criminal conduct
 - In an emergency in order to report a crime
- G. To Coroners, Funeral Directors, and for Organ Donation. We may disclose protected health information to a coroner or medical examiner for identification purposes, to determine the cause of death, or for the coroner or medical examiner to perform other duties as authorized by law. We may also disclose protected health information to a funeral director, as authorized by law, in order to permit the funeral director to carry out their duties. We may disclose such information in reasonable anticipation of death. Protected health information may be used and disclosed for cadaveric organ, eye, or tissue donation purposes.
- H. For Research Purposes. We may use or disclose your protected health information for research when the use or disclosure for research has been approved by an institutional review board or privacy board that has reviewed the research proposal and research protocols to address the privacy of your protected health information.
- I. In the Event of a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. We may, consistent with applicable law and ethical standard of conduct, use or disclose your protected health information if we believe, in good faith, that such use or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to your health or safety or to the health and safety of the public.
- J. For Specified Government Functions. In certain circumstances, the Federal regulations authorize the provider to use or disclose your protected health information to facilitate specified government functions relating to military and veterans activities, national security and intelligence activities, protective services for the president and others, medical suitability determinations, correctional institutions, and law enforcement custodial situations.
- K. For Worker's Compensation. The provider may release your health information to comply with worker's compensation laws or similar programs.

III. Uses and Disclosures Permitted Without Written Authorization But With Opportunity to Object

We may disclose your protected health information to your family member or a close personal friend if it is directly relevant to that person's involvement in your care or payment related to your care. We can also disclose your information in connection with trying to locate or notify family members or others involved in your care concerning your location, condition, or death.

You may object to these disclosures. If you do not object to these disclosures or we can infer from the circumstances that you do not object or we determine, in the exercise of our professional judgment, that it is in your best interests for us to make disclosure of information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement with your care, we may disclose your protected health information as described.

IV. Uses and Disclosures Which You Authorize

Other than as stated above, we will not disclose your health information other than with your written authorization. You may revoke your authorization in writing at any time except to the extent that we have taken action in reliance upon the authorization. This includes the following specific situations:

- Use of your health information for Marketing purposes
- Sale of your health information
- Most use or disclosure of your psychotherapy notes

V. Your Rights

You have the following rights regarding your health information:

- A. The right to inspect and copy your protected health information. You may inspect and obtain a copy of your protected health information that is contained in a designated record set for as long as we maintain the protected health information. A “designated record set” contains medical and billing records and any other records that your provider uses for making decisions about you. You may request your protected health information in paper or electronic format.

Under Federal law, however, you may not inspect or copy the following records: psychotherapy notes; information compiled in reasonable anticipation of, or for use in, a civil, criminal, or administrative action or proceeding; and protected health information that is subject to a law that prohibits access to protected health information. Depending on the circumstances, you may have the right to have a decision to deny access reviewed.

We may deny your request to inspect or copy your protected health information if, in our professional judgment, we determine that the access requested is likely to endanger your life or safety, or that of another person, or that it is likely to cause substantial harm to another person referenced within the information. You have the right to request a review of this decision.

To inspect and copy your health information, you must submit a written request to the Privacy Officer. The contact information is listed on the final page of this Notice. If you request a copy of your information, we may charge you a fee for the costs of copying, mailing, or other costs incurred by us in complying with your request.

Please contact our Privacy Officer if you have questions about access to your medical record.

- B. The right to request a restriction on uses and disclosures of your protected health information. You may ask us not to use or disclose certain parts of your protected health information for the purposes of treatment, payment, or health care operations. You may also request that we not disclose your health information to family members or friends who may be involved in your care for notification purposes as described in this Notice of Privacy Practices. Your request must state the specific restriction requested and to whom you want the restrictions to apply.

The provider is not required to agree to a restriction that you may request. We will notify you if we deny your request to a restriction. If the provider does agree to the requested restriction, we may not use or disclose your protected health information in violation of that restriction, unless it is needed to provide emergency treatment. Under certain circumstances, we may terminate our agreement to a restriction. You may request a restriction by contacting the Privacy Officer.

You may also pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full and ask us not to share that information, for the purpose of payment or our operations, with your health insurer. We will keep those services or items separate in your record so that they will not be used or disclosed with other health information to your insurance company.

- C. The right to request to receive confidential communications in a specific format or location. You have the right to request that we communicate with you in certain ways. We will accommodate reasonable requests. We may condition this accommodation by asking you for information as to how payment will be handled or specification of an alternative address or other method of contact. We may also deny requests if there are concerns about the security of the method of communication requested in order to maintain the continued safety of your protected health information. We will not require you to provide an explanation for your request. Requests must be made in writing to our Privacy Officer.
- D. The right to have your provider amend your protected health information. You may request an amendment of the protected health information about you in a designated record set for as long as we maintain this information. In certain cases, we may deny your request for an amendment. If we deny your request for an amendment, you have the right to file a statement of disagreement with us and we may prepare a rebuttal to your statement and will provide you with a copy of any such rebuttal. Request for amendment must be made in writing and must be directed to our Privacy Officer. In this request, you must also provide a reason to support the requested amendments.
- E. The right to receive an accounting. You have the right to request an accounting of certain disclosures of your protected health information made by the provider. This right applies to disclosures for purposes other than treatment, payment, or health care operations as described in this Notice of Privacy Practices. We are also not required to account for disclosures that you requested, disclosures you agreed to by signing an authorization form, disclosures for a facility directory, disclosures to friends or family members involved in your care, or certain other disclosures we are permitted to make without your authorization. The request for an accounting must be made in writing to our Privacy Officer. The request should specify the time period sought for the accounting. We are not required to provide an accounting for disclosures that take place prior to April 14, 2003. Accounting requests may not be made for periods of time in excess of six years prior to the request. We will provide the first accounting you request during any 12 month period without charge. Subsequent accounting requests may be subject to a reasonable cost based fee.
- F. The right to choose someone to act for you. You have the right to specify and choose someone to act as a medical power of attorney that can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. If someone is your legal guardian, they may also exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. We will always verify that this designated person has the authority to act on your behalf before we take any action regarding your protected health information.
- G. The right to obtain a paper copy of this notice. Upon request, we will provide a paper copy of this notice even if you have already received a copy of the notice or have agreed to accept this notice electronically.

VI. Our Duties

The provider is required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and to provide you with this Notice of our duties and privacy practices. We are required to abide by the terms of this Notice as may be amended from time to time. We reserve the right to change the terms of this Notice and to make the new Notice provisions effective for all protected health information that we maintain. If the provider changes its Notice, we will provide a copy of the revised

Notice by sending a copy of the Revised Notice via regular mail or through in-person contact and by posting it on our website.

VII. Complaints

You have the right to express complaints to the provider and to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights if you believe that your privacy rights have been violated. You may complain to the provider by contacting the provider's Privacy Officer verbally or in writing, using the contact information below. We encourage you to express any concerns you may have regarding the privacy of your information. You will not be retaliated against in any way for filing a complaint.

VIII. Contact Information

The provider's contact person for all issues regarding patient privacy and your rights under the Federal privacy standards is the Privacy Officer. Information regarding matters covered by this Notice can be requested by contacting the Privacy Officer. Complaints against the provider can be mailed to the Privacy Officer by sending it to:
